Bulletin of The Japanese Red Cross
Kyushu International College of Nursing
No.12
CONTENTS

Original Article
Legal responsibility of health care workers in medication error incidents:
In view of the administration of chemotherapy
Naomi MASUNARI ............................. 1

Inner contradiction of Florence Nightingale and conformation of moder nursing:
Through reformation of public hygiene in London and Barrack Hospital at Scutari
Satoshi TOKUNAGA ............................. 13

Patient’s perceptions and interpretations of nursing care:
Focusing on postoperative patients’ feelings and perceptions of nursing care and practice
Miyuki OHISHI ................................... 33

Reports
Nursing students learning outcomes after the introduction of simulated patients (SP) in preparation for clinical practicum:
Focusing nursing students perceived experiences
Yoshie KOTEGAWA, Orie ABE, Tamie HONDA, Keiko YANAI,
Mayuko UTSUNOMIYA, Sakiko NAKAHIRA, Chiharu TANAKA,
Tae KANAMARU ................................ 47

A continuing nursing education training course for Indonesian Nurses:
Career development ladder project
Tomoko TERAKADO Etsuko KITA, Satomi OGAWA, Lourdes HERRERA,
Tamie HONDA, Tomoko UEMURA, Kazue MATSUO,
Kiyoshi IGARASHI ................................ 57

A survey among midwives on the level of knowledge and the degree of application and usefulness regarding development of fetuses, neonates, and infants:
A comparison with nurses and women from the general population
Sayuri ISHIYAMA, Yoshiko KIYOOKA, Takashi TAHARA,
Kazutomo OHASHI .............................. 63

Research Note
Discussing the need to develop correctional nursing in Japan:
In light of a trial on medical care at penal institutions
Keiko YANAI .................................. 73

Effective use and protection of medical information:
Register-based research in Denmark
Naomi MASUNARI .............................. 85

November 2013